In fact, Edmondstone came oftener than ever. His anxiety and unhappiness grew upon him and made him moody, irritable, and morbid. One night, when M. Villefort had left them alone together for a short time, he sprang from his chair and came to her couch, shaken with suppressed emotion. That man is killing you! he exclaimed. You are dying by inches! I cannot bear it! It is not he who is killing me, she answered; and then M. Villefort returned to the room with the book he had been in search of. In this case Edmondstone's passion took new phases. He wrote no sonnets, painted no pictures. He neglected his work, and spent his idle hours in rambling here...
