Taylor: The American Hero and People s Man; Together With a Concise History of the Mexican War The Song of Ringgold s Artillerists. The Mexican bandits Have crossed to our shore; Our soil has been dyed With our countrymen s gore. The murderer s triumph Was theirs for a day - Our triumph is coming - So fire - fire away! Fire away! Be steady - be ready - And firm every hand - Pour your shot like a storm On the murderous band. On their flanks, on their centre, Our batteries play - And we sweep them like chaff As we fire - fire away! Fire away! Lo! the smoke-wreaths uprising. The belching flames tear Wide gaps through the curtain, Revealing despair. Torn flutters their banner - No oriflamme gay: They are wavering - sinking - So fire - fire away! Fire away! Tis over - the thunders Have died on the gale - Of the wounded and vanquished. Hark! hark to the wail! Long...
