This test may do much to end debate and unify opinion on social questions. Into the profitless discussion of measures from the standpoint of particular interests the sociologist has thrown the question, Is it best for society as a whole? But society is a vague entity, and each disputant deems his own class the backbone of society. The selectionist in turn seeks to lift the plane of discussion with the question, Will it tend to the preponderance of the fittest? For cases where it can be applied, perhaps his touchstone will be adopted sooner than that of the sociologist. Most of us are hazy as to the social welfare; but every one knows and prefers the hale to the sickly, the wise to the foolish, the...
